Message from Our President CeCe Rund

Daffodils, crocus and hyacinths are blooming and remind us of new life. As our Federation emerges into spring, we find that it is a busy time as we prepare for our in-person Annual Convention on May 18, 2023 starting with registration at 9:30 a.m. at Baltimore Hebrew Congregation. As women's rights are once again on the table, we have a powerful woman-centered conference ready for YOU! Ms. Schneider, editor-in-chief of "Lilith" magazine, will provide an empowering presentation and provide each attendee with a free copy of Lilith Magazine. Our E.B. Hirsh Lifetime Achievement Award honoree, Betsy Narrow, is exemplary of women's ability to lead the way! Check out our honorees from each of our membership organizations. How wonderful it is to have these ladies as part of our Federation and it is an honor to honor YOU! Mazel Tov! Let these ladies know that you appreciate them by sending them a special Mazel Tov card. (Look at "forms" on our home page and complete and send).

The Federation is also focusing on two resolutions directly related to women's issues: Women's Mental Health and revisiting Women's Equity. We also have a resolution on Antisemitism: Again! Antisemitism is here, again...never has gone away. However, there is a more recent surge in this hateful activity. Please take the time to read our resolutions and see what you can do to make life better for Jewish women.

Linda Boteach, a past president, and I are also starting to add an advocacy page to our newsletter which you can find by going to jewishwomensfed.org. On this page, you will find web sites and information about issues at hand. Our first one will concentrate on antisemitism. If you feel that you have truly witnessed an antisemitic event, please report it. This reporting information will be found on our advocacy page as well.

On February 23, 2023, the Federation held it's first Representative-President's Forum at Har Sinai-Oheb Shalom. We had 26 attendees and shared information about the Federation and about each other. We also discussed needs and possible future programs based upon our membership input. We have already begun to develop some of the ideas that came from this program. One is the new advocacy page on our web site. We will be concentrating on antisemitism with a twist as to how we can help our pre-college youth be prepared for the possibility of encountering antisemitism on campus.

Now, we can kvell a bit. Helene H. Waranch, one of our past presidents received a prestigious award at the recent Mid-Atlantic WRJ Annual Convention; the Eishet Chayil Award (Woman of Valor) for her lifetime achievements. So well deserved! Helene, like her mother, E.B. Hirsh, has been serving our Jewish women and communities for many years in a variety of leadership roles. A beautiful tribute was shown and was produced by Marcia Bornfriend. Marcia Bornfriend, Immediate Past President, also received the Temple Woman of Valor Award and represented BHC! Marcia is no stranger to leadership as well. We are so well represented with Women Who Lead the Way! We are blessed. Mazel Tov to Helene and Marcia.

And, now, another exciting event. Mark your calendars for July 18, 2023 at Baltimore Hebrew Congregation. Details to follow. The Federation of Jewish Women's Organizations of Maryland and The Associated will partner to present Laura Black, author of Climbing Down the Ladder. Ms. Black will talk about her book as well as sell and autograph her work. We are looking forward to this new and exciting program.

I hope everyone had a peaceful and memorable Passover. Please have a safe summer as well. WE, at Federation, will not be sleeping during the summer, but will be planning for our next year. All my very best to you, our valued members!

Wishing you a warm and happy spring,

President, CeCe Rund

Federation Legislative Update—2023

It was just a few years ago that we were celebrating the 19th amendment that passed Congress on June 4, 1919 and was ratified August 18, 1920. Here we are in April of 2023 and I can't stop thinking about how different our lives as women would be without the right to vote. Forty years ago the Maryland General Assembly Women's Caucus created an official position to prioritize through legislation: The Declaration Of Rights which is the right to reproductive Freedom. The Right to Reproductive liberty has moved through both branches of our legislature with a promise from Governor Moore to sign it.

I, as a citizen of this state, am proud of the men and women representing us in Annapolis. The next move from House Speaker, Adrienne Jones, is to ensure abortion rights become part of the Maryland State Constitution. This would guarantee abortion rights in Maryland in the future.

Mid Winter Conference Report—by Shulamit Finkelstein

On January 26, 2023, we were blown away by three women CEOs of multi-million dollar Israeli high tech companies: Carly Furman, CEO of Nayax LLC, a leading provider of cashless payment solutions in the North American market and the Western Hemisphere; Jennifer Roby, Vice President of Finance and CFO of Elta North America, a company working to solve complex and advanced defense and homeland security challenges for the U.S. government, including the manufacture of radar for the Iron Dome and Vered Caplan, CEO of Orgenesis, a global biotech company working on cell and gene therapies collaboratively with Johns Hopkins Medicine. This talk was moderated by Nancy Boguslaw, Deputy Director of the Maryland/Israel Development Center (MIDC). These women also happen to work in our own back yard of Baltimore! The CEOs told us how they came to be interested in high tech and how they rose to become leaders in what are typically male-dominated fields. We learned about their unique leadership styles, and how, as mothers and grandmothers, we can support our daughters and granddaughters in their career choices. All presentations were most impressive and inspiring.

Representative-President Forum Getting to Know You: Getting to Know US

Twenty-four representatives and/or presidents of our constituent organizations attended our first Representative-Presidents Forum held at Har Sinai-Oheb Shalom Congregation on February 23, 2023. The title of this program was "Getting to Know YOU: Getting to Know Us" as the Federation wanted to develop a closer relationship with our membership. As an umbrella organization, The Federation of Jewish Women's Organizations of Maryland crosses all branches of Judaism with its 25 organizational membership. Our goal is to unite Jewish women and to educate, advocate and keep our Jewish women informed and strong. We shared information about the Federation: who we are, what we do and our future plans. One new initiative is appointing one of our vice presidents, Julie Bernstein, as The Representative Liaison for our organizations. We can look forward to stronger communication through our membership organization representatives and a conduit where our organizational representatives can share concerns, needs and ideas.

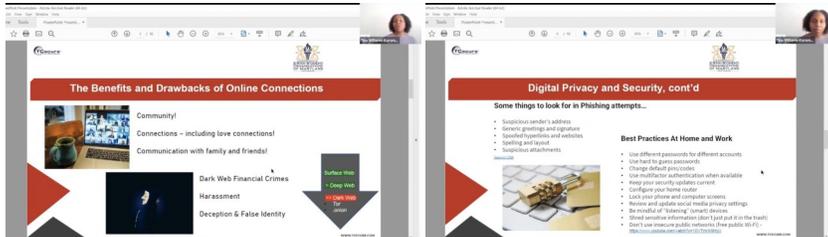

The feedback about this program from the attendees was very positive. The attendees felt that the information was needed, interesting and helpful. Suggestions for future programs included a high response for programs regarding antisemitism and how to talk to your children and grandchildren about facing antisemitism in high school and college campuses. Based upon this feedback, we will now use our web site, jewishwomensfed.org, as a resource site. We will be posting resources for all regarding issues on antisemitism, how to report an incident, links to articles about dealing with antisemitism and talking with your children/grandchildren about this most sensitive and real topic. We also completed a new resolution on antisemitism which will be revealed at our annual convention at Baltimore Hebrew Congregation on May 18, 2023.

Another important suggested topic was engaging younger members to your organization, succession planning and how to keep your organization afloat. Based upon this request, we look forward to having Annette Saxon addressing these issues at our President's Reception on June 29th. The exchange of information during this breakfast forum was most informative and we look forward to sponsoring more such programs in the future.

March Meeting Report—by Shulamit Finkelstein

On March 16, 2023, we had the pleasure of hearing from Tina Williams-Koroma, Cyber Security Expert about the “Dark Web.” Tina showed us how to protect ourselves while navigating social media. Among the best practices that she encouraged us to follow included using different passwords for different accounts, using hard to guess passwords, using multifactor authentication, being mindful of listening devices, shredding sensitive information and avoiding use of insecure public networks.

President's Reception for President's and Representatives

Date: June 29, 2023

Topic: Promoting and Marketing Your Organization

Registration at 9:30 a.m.

All Current Presidents are invited!

We are so pleased to have past E.B. Hirsh Lifetime Achievement Award recipient, Annette Saxon, present at our annual President's Reception. Annette is the outgoing chair of the Associated Women and is on the continental board of Jewish Community Centers of America and of JCC Global. Ms. Saxon will be sharing her expertise with us and is planning an exciting program on promoting and marketing your organization. At one time or another, we have all struggled with membership and attracting young blood among other issues. The Federation is grateful to Annette for sharing her ideas with us. We welcome vice presidents if you are unable to attend. Breakfast will be served. Thank you to our past Federation Presidents and current President for funding and supporting this informative program.
